I'll be there in the morning, and we'll conceive some light

I'll be just like your angel, I'll be your guiding light

Call to wake you up and connect your thoughts and make it all seem worthwhile

I'll be there just for you girl, I'm gonna make you smile

Must be love, what are we thinking of, must be love, just because, yeah

I'm gonna catch a fast train, I'll be there overnight

You can meet me at the station, and gimme a kiss that makes all right

But I'm countin' every moment, I'm walking in my sleep

Now I'm gonna stir you up real deep girl, I'll stir you up for keeps

It must be love, what are we thinking of, must be love, just because

Lay down your love for me, why don't you lay down your love

Baby lay down your love

I get a good connection, right thru your fingertips

Every time you look me in the eye, I swear I go on a trip

I've been around the world so many times, and it's such a lovely thing

I don't wanna lose this good thing that we got

You know you make my heart sing

Must be love, what are you thinking of, must be love, just because

Lay down your love to me, why don't you lay down your love, that's right

Baby lay down your love, lay down

This time, what do we want to say, in you, I wanna stand in your way

(Instrumental break)

Lay down your love for me, why don't you lay down
your love

Because I need you

Lay down for me, why don't you lay down your love

This must be love, baby what you're thinkin' of Baby, lay down your love, I'll be there in the morning

Lay down your love, lay lay lay lay lay, lay lay lay lay lay

Baby lay down your love, lay down your love

Baby lay down your love, down your love... (to fade)
