You know, sometimes the one you love can hurt you
very very much...
...and the whole world becomes a drag.
But what gets me down most of all, is when they do it
time and time again. They seem to run their little game in the ground.

I'm not sittin down and takin it.
(I can't stand it)
I'm gonna make it stop and I won't say a word.
It's gonna never be heard by you...

I'm not standing here, while ya dish it out.
Heartache and pain, that I could always and forever live without.
I didn't know I didn't know until this very day...
...that I was gonna leave but I do now.

Chorus

That was the straw that broke the camel's back, ha
That was the straw that broke the camel's back, ha

Oh yes, and by the way, you've been seeing someone else.

I'm not about to quarrel with ya lady.
Sit around feeling sorry for myself.
I didn't know, I didn't know until this very day...
...how to up and leave but I do now.

Chorus

That was the straw that broke the camel's back, ha
That was the straw that broke the camel's back, ha
That was the straw that broke the camel's back, ha
That was the straw that broke the camel's back, ha

All my friends say, oh that I'm just being brave.
...And I'd be cutting my nose off to spite my face or pulling dirt on my own grave to walk off and leave you.
But they didn't believe, they didn't believe til this very day...

...that I was gonna leave but they do now.

Chorus

That was the straw that broke the camel's back, ha
That was the straw that broke the camel's back, ha
That was the straw that broke the camel's back, ha
That was the straw that broke the camel's back, ha

You just done ran, you just done ran it in the ground, oh yeah.

Aw girl I'm sick and tired, sick and tired, sick and tired,
sick and tired.

You should have quit it, now I'm leaving you with it.

Aw girl I'm sick and tired, sick and tired, sick and tired,
sick and tired.

Ah yeah, whoo yeah.

Hey I'm sick and tired, sick and tired, sick and tired,
sick and tired.

Whoo, ya ran it in the ground.

Oh girl I'm sick and tired, sick and tired, sick and tired,
sick and tired.

You know, sometimes the one you love can hurt you
very very much...

...and the whole world becomes a drag.

But what gets me down most of all, is when they do it
time and time again. They seem to run their little game
in the ground.
