It's a must, it's compulsive
A family entertainment
Play Americans and Russians
Find a place to hide your poison

Beat the others round the head
The others round the table
Be the first to take the money
Past the point of desperation

Living on pins but I will try it all the same
Be extra careful when you're answering the questions
Living on promises of fortune and fame
You could win a car or a dream home in New Zealand
New Zealand

You say that you're all happy
You've taken all this time
It's just around the television
I'll be over in a minute

Try and wait if you can
To watch you're brand new program
Americans and Russians
Find a place to hide your poison

Prize of a lifetime never get this chance again
You watch your words when you're answering their questions
Save precious moments [Incomprehensible] the fast lane
Seven extra minutes in your dream home in New Zealand

It's a must, compulsive
Family entertainment
Everybody's in the bunker
Everybody's getting pushy

Beat the others 'round the head
Beat the others to the button
Feel your habit of obedience

Must surely count for something

Terrible risk but I will take it all the same Just mind your manners when you're answering their
questions
Now could you tell me what's the most I stand to gain?
Seven hours of heaven in your dream home in New Zealand
In New Zealand
