It's time for me to make my silence now be heard
I've been hurting for so long inside it burns
As I get older I bleed a little deeper (deeper)
For if no one knows who'll care just for one day

When I remember all the tortures to my skin (yeah)
Teacher teacher you must think my flesh is thin
Snap your fingers and I run just like a baby (baby oh)
If you're the queen of all
Could you think just for one day

You never learned to love me just the way I am
In your heart I thought you'd maybe give a damn
(damn damn damn damn)
Tell the world I am the best and then you hate me (hate me oh)
How'd you think I would turn out
Could you feel just for one day

If time stood still
I'd be the wind
Free as a star
Just for one day

If time stood still
I'd be the wind
Free as a star

If time stood still
I'd be the wind
Free as a star
Just for one day

Just for one day...
Just for one day...
