Come in and see the newest things
Feel what just money can bring
Don't you know,
That's the look, that's the look
That's the look of today
That's the look, that's the look
That's the look

You have a problem, I can help
Buy it and be yourself
'Cause you know
That's the look, that's the look
That's the look of today
That's the look, that's the look
That's the look

So many trends just fade away
Before you can wear it, it's a pass?
But you know
That's the look, that's the look
That's the look of today
That's the look, that's the look
That's the look

You are so stylish, you are so vain
Sometimes I think you have no brain
But you know
That's the look, that's the look
That's the look of today
That's the look, that's the look
That's the look

That's the look, that's the look
That's the look of today

'Cause you know

That's the look, that's the look
That's the look of today
That's the look, that's the look
That's the look
