"Day By Day"

I would always learn, I was never taught
Fucked it up again, that's just my luck
Always try to do, by myself
Cause in the end, there's no one else
Always try to do what I think is right
Try to grab tomorrow
Make it to the light
In my heart I know, what I have to do
Try and grab tomorrow
Just try and make it through
I would always learn, I was never taught
Fucked it up again, that's just my luck
Don't let the wrong choice, get in the way
Always try to see
Another day
Stand, stand on my own
You won't help me, so I'll go it alone
Day after day, as I find out the truth
More and more just what I have to do
Stand, stand on my own
You won't help me, so I'll go it alone
Day after day, as I find out the truth
More and more I know what I have to do
