Over the forgotten sea
Voice of angel is calling for me
Somewhere where the mountains collide
That's where I'll find my new life

I have carried this burden so long for you
That nothing but sorrow I feel
I have let myself believe
That nothing would hurt deeper than truth

Never has the wind blown like thousand years ago
Everything that I've known has left me on my own
Never have I felt the rain fall down like the burning flames
All I see is the face of eternal wait

I hear your silent cry lost in the rainy night
No reason to live for, one reason to die for
I hear your silent cry lost in the rainy night
No reason to live for, one reason to die for

I am the one who has fallen into the path of shadows
I am the one who has drowned into the river of tears

Over the forgotten sea
Voice of angel is calling for me
Somewhere where mountains collide
That's where I'll find my new life

I have carried this burden so long for you
That nothing but sorrow I feel
I have let myself believe
That nothing would hurt deeper than truth

Never has the wind blown like thousand years ago
Everything that I've known has left me on my own
Never have I felt the rain fall down like the burning
flames
All I see is the face of eternal wait
