Go
Point your finger
Shake your head
Denial in your eyes
Explain away the images
With propaganda and lies
Justify the wrongs committed
Then hide behind the lies
Cover up another truth
And hope the story dies
What's worth the risk
To expose the lies
To find the truth
Just to survive
Ignorance is so much safer
I just won't be blind
You can't keep me down
When I can use my mind
Crawl into tomorrow
I can face the day
Armed with all the knowledge
You tried to take away
What's worth the risk
To expose the lies
To find the truth
Just to survive
What's worth the risk
What's worth the risk
