Lyrics: Grutle Kjellson 1994
(#_# by Ivar BjãfÂ_rnson 1994)
Forget all laws, all order and peace Chaos is everything; no time or place
Now when all light and life ends,
When the wind now is killing,
The chain has broken... #
The time has come as the Norns predicted nothing lasts forever the Battle at Vigrid shall come there is no brother there is no strong bounds
The bound anger is loose inner coldness is free a river of foam has dried up the Power of the Wolf, the obscure hate
No longer sees a time Angrboda beared

her name justly
With Lauvous son she breeded dread, hate and death a cry of warning in the dark the mountain's roots, bear tendons Woman heard, the sound of catsteps breath from the fish, spit from the bird tamed forces from a forgotten time has held Our Wolf in chains
But not forever!
Fenris is loose
Now our wisdom is swallowed by ancient hate The nine steps are fulfilled
A new road is laid
