Analysis of the human race,
In twenty eleven AD.
We got the technology to move forward,
We've got the knowledge and means to build upstream.
We've got the technology to go faster,
We've got the passion and talent to make this real.
But we're so f-king adaptable, controvertible,
ducking and weaving from the truth.
If it adds weight to the contents of our pockets,
We'll sit and stagnate with banks and use rockets.
To oversee that it's our bottom line
that gets carried to the high seas,
Well quelle f-king surprise.

If you stand for nothing, you will fall for anything for
anything,
If you stand for nothing, you will fall for anything for anything.

We're aware they trying to take away our dream,
We're aware there trying to take away our means.

If you stand for nothing, you will fall for anything for
anything,
If you stand for nothing, you will fall for anything for anything.

We're aware they trying to take away our dream,
We're aware there trying to take away our means.

IF YOU STAND FOR NOTHING,
IF YOU STAND FOR NOTHING,
IF YOU STAND FOR NOTHING,
YOU WILL FALL FOR ANYTHING.

We're so f-king adaptable, controvertible,
ducking and weaving from the truth.
If it adds weight to the contents of our pockets,
We'll sit and stagnate with banks and use rockets.
To oversee that it's our bottom line that gets carried to the high seas,

Well quelle f-king surprise.

We're aware they trying take away our dream,
We're aware there trying take away our means.
We're aware they trying take away our dream,
We're aware there trying take away our means.

Woah.

You are not, going to take away our dreams.
You are not, going to take away our means.
You are not, going to take away our dreams.
You are not, going to take away our means.
