Scratch card glory or waist low pleasure?
Black eyes nose bleeds don't look back now
My white abode do you remember?
My white abode do you remember?
But it's such a thrill to find out...

Sorry you're not a winner
With the air so cold and a mind so bitter
What have you got to lose
But false intentions and a life so pretentious?

Scratch card glory or waist low pleasure?
Black eyes nose bleeds don't look back now
My white abode do you remember?
My white abode do you remember?
But it's such a thrill to find out...

Sorry you're not a winner
With the air so cold and a mind so bitter
What have you got to lose
But false intentions and a life so pretentious?
Scratch card glory or waist low pleasure?
Black eyes nose bleeds don't look back now
My white abode do you remember?
I sweat I ache...

Sorry you're not a winner
With the air so cold and a mind so bitter
What have you got to lose
But false intentions and a life so pretentious?

What?-What?-What?
