

Enter Shikari

"Triblism"

Visit "Triblism" on MotoLyrics.com

Shikari was a third generation aztec
His tribe accepting human reality
It was the basis of their ability
To sustain with humble tranquility
But civilizations encouraged religions
Which in turn introduced depravity
And that was as big a realization
As when my boy Newton discovered gravity
'Cos it transformed the way we bounce about
On a daily basis not content with a doubt
About the knowledge of whose up there

Quick!
Give him a name, a trident and a chair
Sharpish, what happened to wonder?
Why can't we accept we're not capable of thunder?
So we welcome the lies with open arms
And we turn into suckers when they turn on the charms

You're trying to run us all into the ground,
To be swallowed by the soil
And trapped by the rain
In your concrete garden of falseness!
You shout through our speakers,
And we don't turn them off,
'Cos trapped in silence it's tougher

But this time
We'll turn the speakers off!
And we won't stay silent
We'll make as much noise as we can!

And I ask, what's a thought without a voice to voice it?
It's just a thought, it's just a thought

The original affluent society
Floating free of capitalistic anxiety
But all that has survived now is the pack vibe
But the catch it dogs don't eat other dogs
We're able animals
Employed by criminals

In this cannibalistic society
Where we scrimp and save just to behave
With the upmost propriety

You're trying to run us all into the ground,
To be swallowed by the soil
And trapped by the rain
In your concrete garden of falseness! [x2]
You shout through our speakers,
And we don't turn them off,
'Cos trapped in silence it's tougher

But this time
We'll turn the speakers off!
And we won't stay silent
We'll make as much noise as we can!

And I ask, what's a thought without a voice to voice it?
It's just a thought, it's just a thought
I sink into this rapture
And I ask, what's a thought without a voice to voice it?
It's just a thought, it's just a thought

We will shout our heads off
We won't stop until you hear
We won't stop until you trip up upon yourselves

I sink into this rapture
And I ask, what's a thought without a voice to voice it?
It's just a thought, it's just a thought [x2]

It's just a thought

And we won't stay silent
We'll make as much noise as we can! [x2]

We won't stay silent!
We won't stay silent!

Visit Enter Shikari page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.