Listen up listen hard take a breath try and prepare all your heart for whats to come.

Grab the rope pull it hard save me from this tragedy.

Chorus

Tonight was everything this love was more than i could handle by myself. We gave up both our lives we gave it all to love by ourselves.

Ask yourself one more time can you live can you live in such a life as strong as this. Still we try confident let in your mind the feelings that youve been dying in so I can prove.

Chorus

Tonight was everything this love was more than i could handle by myself. We gave up both our lives we gave it
all to love by ourselves.

So you let our lives so you let our lives begin (2X)
