A rotten stench surrounds another ended life
Maggots infesting rotten flesh
Is that the way you wanna die?

Decomposed, don't want to live in a decaying shell
Why should I go to heaven
And who's to say I'll enter hell?

Dead deceased but life goes on
I will be the one who won
My charred body will decay
But my soul will be floating anyway

Visually a corpse but what's inside my head
Don't consider I once was deceased
So I guess I'll come back from the dead

Dying my death in relentless aggrieve
Dead and put down in a wooden box
Just can't be my destiny

Dead deceased but life goes on
I will be the one who won
Continue to seek and you will see
Life is your worst enemy

A rotten stench surrounds another ended life
Maggots infesting rotten flesh
Is that the way you wanna die?

Decomposed, don't want to live in a decaying shell
Why should I go to heaven
And who's to say I'll enter hell?

Dead deceased but life goes on
I will be the one who won
Continue to seek and you will see
Life is your worst enemy
