God is waiting, always hating, endlessly
Loss of life means nothing now that everything is free
Never in your wildest dreams could you anticipate this loss
Impotent redeemer hanging helpless on the cross

I for an eye, tooth for a truth
Pain in kind
Try to see things straight
The hate has made you blind

Inbred soul cries out in anguish
Nightmare ended, life surrender
Spent a lifetime shooting up
But still they drag you down

Deliberate infliction
From a whiter shade of brown

Inbred soul cries out in anguish
Nightmare ended, life surrendered
Spent a lifetime shooting up
But still they drag you down

I for an eye, tooth for a truth
Spinal staircase
Comprehension sets in Violent embrace

I for an eye, tooth for a truth
Pain in kind
Manic
Always searching what you'll never find

You're blind
