(Lyrics: Hakansson; Music: Andersson/Cederlund)

One more dead soul there's a hole in the sky illuminating dreamquest the prophet's eye by virtue of madness a sign of faith lurking at the threshold you're lost between the gates

Death's a solution to life's dead illusions
Stranger aeons - stained by re-creation
Stranger aeons - of hallucination
(Leads: Cederlund, Hellid)

Stranger things that eternal lie awaiting beyond the time to die in the city of gods in the temple of lies initiation progression Zarathustra cries You were wrong from the start we will never part
Stranger aeons - stained by re-creation
Stranger aeons - of hallucination
Take strange drugs - swallow your pride
It's all but a game - nuclear stock piles
