I sing this song of tears for you
Distilled emotions passing through
I still remember a last caress
I want to hold you again....
This road goes on Beside, my heart lies bleeding
But I take the path that leads to you
The savage memory of a heart that Wants to be
Is tired of pressures I cling to
One lonely heartbeat that cries
Echoes in the silence of a love I felt for you
I felt for you
I sing this song of love to you
Distilled emotions passing through
These heartstrings played

Echo with a dying feeling
Of a silent chord
Then dies away
The love I felt for you has passed
Since we both cried
Our separate tears
One lonely heartbeat that cries
Echoes in the silence of a love I felt for
you
I felt for you
Take my tears away...
Sear my passionate cry
The love I felt for you
Has passed, rent asunder
Now freed, my torn regret
I once held you
Alone, we swam in tears
You left me to drown
Now I dream
If I died for you...?
