"The Sound Of Her Wings"

Visit "The Sound Of Her Wings" on MotoLyrics.com

My heart is thine
I yearn for your embrace
To still this wait of mine
To further all our mysteries
To further these dreams on high
We taste the treasures as the savage
garden blooms
With spring to flower
You and I shall rise again
This sacred hour
To fly past lands of passion
To swim in seas serene
Alone with the sound of your wings
For all eternity
Silently

Indulge in me
I give you all my love
(And my soul) to thee
Together, my angel of mercy
These tears shall sear no more
We taste the treasures as the savage
garden blooms
With spring to flower
You and I shall rise again
This sacred hour
To fly past lands of passion
To swim in seas serene
Alone with the sound of your wings
For all eternity
For all eternity
