Will you walk alone with me?
Will you take my hand in this?
Don't turn me away
Don't turn me away
I can't take it
I still want you
You walk away
And leave me to die
Under this killing moon
The wounds that scar the heart
When I cry, it's tears for you
That run so sweetly, so freely
Far beneath this killing moon
Your words stab deep
Inside of me
You walk away
And leave me to die

Under this killing moon
The wounds that scar the heart
In my mind, still we walk
Together as one
We cling to each other
Share each others fears
..alone
Still I want to hold you
Never let you go
..let your pain be mine
Let me take you
Let me hold you
Protect you
>From this killing moon
Let me hold you
Let me love you
Under this killing moon
