They said if the cigarettes
Didn't get you alcohol would first
A little white and a little brown
Mixed together got you all sunburst

Well, everybody's got troubles
Just how bad were yours?

I know in a sad world it's a long way home
I know in a bad world that it's a long way home
I know in a mad world it's a long way home
But you left me carrying on all alone, all alone

Well, I thought as sure as hell
It'd be me, my dear, instead of you
But that only goes to show
The amazing things that we can do

We're all the people you love
And we all still love you

I know in a sad world it's a long way home
I know in a bad world that it's a long way home
I know in a mad world it's a long way home
But you left me carrying on all alone, all alone

But maybe if I hung out
For just a week or two, yeah

I know in a sad world it's a long way home
I know in a bad world that it's a long way home
I know in a mad world it's a long way home
But you left me carrying on all alone, all alone, all alone, all alone
