No it wasn't very easy
To escape but we did
Leaving the party so that no one noticed we were amiss
Just the moon looks down
And sees us as we kiss the first time
And he knows just what
My feeling ask you to decline

Give me more time
Please, just a little more
Just some more time
Because I need it
We can walk to my home
But then leave me alone
I'm not ready for your love tonight
Won't you give me more time

Such a wonderful feeling
Kissing 'til we feel faint
With our hearts beating so madly
Like they're going insane
For the very first time
We are here on our own
But what we both want to happen
Just won't happen tonight
