Chorus:

I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
away away away away away

Verse 1:

Heres a little story
That I got to tell one Friday night I was out getting my groove on right by the strobe light
When I seen a little shorty Looking like a super model could it really be seriously or is it these beer goggles
So I wobbled right up to her
And I took her by the hand
And I marched her over to the dance floor and started to jam
Danced the night away
Til the clock ran out of time
I stared in her eyes she was hypnotized
I said ooh girl your mine
Chorus:

I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
away away away away away

Verse 2:

Now everyday is excellent cause I get text messages with smiley faces and lower case lettering that says I miss you baby
Even though her friends be hating

They be saying that I be playing
My girl still stick by y side
Like a siamese twin Gimme a big ol' grin when she gives me head just like aspirin
Without me even asking
In the front row of my show when Im rappin
Incredible when we smashing
I forsee a future with both us laughin'
Chorus:

I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
away away away away away

Verse 3:

Aint nothing to me really that far fetched cause I survived a car wreck
I aint ever been out to the stars yet baby get into my rocketship
We can fly away a million miles away
we'll be back anohter day right before the holiday right in time to catch the matinee
Blast off baby you and me
Lets go play in the galaxy
And magically shoot through the stars
Straight to the middle of a fantasy
Can you see that my love is true
There's nothing else that I got to say to you
We can fly away a million miles away
prepare for lift off

Chorus:

I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
away away away away away

Chorus:

I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away

I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
I dont know what else to say
I just want to fly away
