"Escape"

The walls are caving in now.
The worst has yet to come.
I will not go silent I'll overcome.
The time has come to rethink what I need.
The time has come for freedom.
Let it ring! Now will be the day, when I will be saved.

Chorus:

Escape this tragedy and find my way back to your arms again.

Escape reality and find my way back to what I long to be.

Though many trials face me, I will be whole again.

With every step that's taken suffering ends.

The time has come to finish what began.

The time has come for justice.

Understand, now will be the day, when I will be changed

Who am I without you (Repeat)

It's time to rise up. (Repeat)
