Now awake, you were dreaming so.
Do you feel me?
You were tired again
You turned away
Will you stay there
In a world of wells you've wished into
You cannot escape yourself
Don't let go
Don't let go
Do not sacrifice a life though bleeding
Don't you worry

CHORUS:

Beautiful, contagious, loving friend
You significant, significant
Full of worth, intriguing, God's own plan
You're significant, significant

Now you face all the
Battles you have waged
Do you hear me?
You were calling out again for help
Will you heal me?
The tides have changed, but you've remained
Steadfast in your suffering
Don't let go
Don't let go

Do not sacrifice a life though bleeding
Don't you worry
