I saw you yesterday
I didn't know that it would be the last time
You said my name
You walked away
A moment's lost but never once forgotten

But one day, I'll see you face to face
Then we'll say things we ment to say
It's too late for now but not always
We'll meet again and then we'll start from these
Unfinished Memories

I can not change that day
Go back
Erase what happened
Ease the pain
There's none to blame
No steps to take
And even tho we may not understand

But one day, I'll see you face to face
Then we'll say thing we ment to say
It's too late for now but not always
We'll meet again and then we'll start from these
Unfinished Memories

These Unfinished Memories

But one day, I'll see you face to face
Then we'll say what we ment to say
It's too late for now but not always
We'll meet again and then we'll start from these
Unfinished Memories

These Unfinished Memories
