If you quit, if you start
If you want to play a part
If you stop, if you begin
If you lose it, if you win

If you come, if you go
If you miss the opening night show
If you smile, and if you cry
If you promis, if you lie

[Chorus x2]
Girls keep secrets in the strangest ways
Girls don?t tell
We just sometimes have to say

If you speak, if you keep still
If you take mountains into a mount hill
If you love, and if you hate
If you see it all to late

[Chorus x2]
Girls keep secrets in the strangest ways
Girls don?t tell
We just sometimes have to say

If you stop, if you begin
If you lose it, if you win
If you smile, if you cry
If you promis, if you lie (x2)

If you quit, if you start
If you want to play a part
If you stop, if you begin
If you lose it, if you win

[Chorus x2]
Girls keep secrets in the strangest ways
Girls don?t tell
We just sometimes have to say
