So you say you're willing to
Break out and spend your last day with me
-----?-----

And still you want to walk by my side

Ref.

On the surface

As harmless as can be

You and me

But underneath

There's a story never told

About you and me

No complications please

I will win situation is to prefer, yeah

But are you willing to let loose

On my default will you still be here

Repeat ref.

So you say you're willing to

Break out and spend your last day with me

A stiff? to climb

And still you want to walk by my side

On the surface

As harmless as can be

You and me

But underneath

There's a story never told

About you and me

On the surface

As harmless as can be

You and me

But underneath

There's a story never told

About you...
