Speakin' of the devil
Well, here I am
May I come in?

Feelin' like a lost and lonely lamp
May I come in?

Don't slam the door
Before you hear my story
Please let me stay till I can say
I am, oh, so sorry

Sorry that I ran out
And lost my mind with someone new

Carelessly I left my heart behind
It's still with you
What can I do?

I am standing on your welcome mat
But the welcome's wearing thin

Speakin' of the fool I've been
May I please come in?
