What if the magic has died
All you've got is your pride to believe in Set your mantra aside
There's a chance you might be the bigger person
Big ideas are never formed by committee baby
Who only dream in black and white

I've been beat down, broken up, sideways, baby
Falling over you
Strung out, screaming out of windows, baby
Falling over you

It's not the plan you designed inside your mind
Your fairy tale is a shadow
Be sure to ask all your friends because in the end
It's all just smoke and mirrors
Give me something I can hold you to
And I will give you somewhere you can bury your head

I've been beat down, broken up, sideways, baby
Falling over you
Strung out, screaming out of windows, baby
Falling over you
I've been beat down, broken up, sideways, baby
Falling over you
Strung out, hanging out of windows, baby
Falling over

Call me over...
You'll win me over...

I've been beat down, broken up, sideways, baby
Falling over you
Strung out, screaming out of windows, baby
Falling over you
