"Venality"

Searching for what she can't find
For her own peace of mind

She can't forgive, nor forget the past
These ineffable feelings and hurt that last evermore

Bewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the past

Don't employ yourself, let the penance begin You've got to open your heart to see the confinement

Bewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the past (2x)

These seem so futile, forget this, your freedom the present state of veniality

Bewail the truth, the face of fate, and conquer all the
past (3x)
Search for the right, and then you'll find your own peace of mind
