(Verse 1)

Has it failed?

A lie so white it's almost see-through

All we made, a fruitless effort to connect with ourselves

And remain Disconnected

(Verse 2)

Don't hesitate to sweep this failure under the carpet

As we exchange insincerities as we walk out on ourselves

And remain Disconnected

(Chorus)

So I slide into the deep end

I was up against something bigger than me

Don't have any access, don't have any answers

To what is inside

So I hide

(Verse 3)

So here is to safety and it's comfort

I won't know how to get around this or myself to begin with

I remain Disconnected

(Chorus)

So I slide into the deep end

I was up against something bigger than me

Don't have any access, don't have any answers

To what is inside, To what is inside

Don't have any access, don't have any answers

To what is inside

And remain...Disconnected...
