...and so Powerful stood up and gathered around the Symbol,
Which into dust fall, and they did, what they has to do.
From their palms black pearls fell down into dust close to their feet,
Where it changed into monolithic piece – from the dust was born The Black Crystal.

Yes, it is that memory, when I was standing by The Monolith of Demons and I understood everything.

It is the first and last,
And you Equirhodon't, you'll become it's Guardian.
Watch it as an eye in your head,
For there is Force conjured in it,
The Force of all generations of Mages.

It is the first and last, it is the first and last!
It is the first and last, it is the first and last!

It is the first and last,
Once it will save all of the Worlds,
Once it will finish your Work.
It will be Him who you will call for the last time,
He alone will rest your Friend.

It is the first and last, it is the first and last!
It is the first and last, it is the first and last!
It is the first and last, it is the first and last!
It is the first and last, it is the first and last!
