(Take it home with a burn)
What's that thing upon your forehead growing
Now there's holes for something to get in there
You hide 'em fast so noone sees it
Oh I can't believe there was something in your hair

The coat is off
The seat is there
Just take a chance
and let me stare
What can you do?
I say "Who is that looser around you?"
So do you really think that I could be the only man to live in harmony?
I need some news to surround you
(Oh yeah)
Take it home with a burn

So point that tail to someone else who cares about you
I'm quite sure that you will find one
Needles, fire, wings and other devil things
I'm sure your ways are meant to hide one

The coat is off
The seat is there
Just take a chance
and let me stare
What can you do?
I say "Who is that looser around you?"
So do you really think that I could be
the only man to live in harmony?
I need some news to surround you.

Does this ever go away
Discover things in my own way
And I don't believe but still I pray
Discover things in my own way
It just won't stop
(Take it home with a burn)

The coat is off
The seat is there

Just take a chance
and let me stare
What can you do?
I say "Who is that loser around you?"
So do you really think that I could be
the only man to live in harmony?
I need some news to surround you

Oh Yeah - I'm gonna leave it this way x4
