It's not just a love affair, it's all or nothing
Do I bet it all on love or change and freak out?
When the chances come my way, will they up and disappear?
Will it ever go my way, or am I out of here?

There'll be tears before your bedtime
You mark my words
You wanted more than I could give you
You wanted more than you could have

It's not just a love affair, it's now or never Could I give it all to you, is that what we're about?
If I hold you, will you stay or will you up and disappear?
Be forever and a day, like your letter said

There'll be tears before your bedtime
You mark my words
You wanted more than I could give you
You wanted more than you could have

When the chances come my way
Will they up and disappear?
Will it ever go my way or am I out of here?

There'll be tears before your bedtime
(Tears before your bedtime)
You mark my words
You wanted more than I could give you
You wanted more than you could have
(Love's growing stronger every day)

More than you could have
(Love's growing stronger every day)
More than you could have
(Love's growing stronger every way)
More than you could have
(Love's growing stronger every way)
