"Love The Way You Do So"

On and on and on, here's the break of dawn
Coming through the window heart
Pull yourself a chair up, love

On and on and on, quiver like a reed
Let yourself a go go, old one
Honor me, solo young man

Careful not to give yourself away
There is still tomorrow and a heart felt meaning
When you get that feeling, you will recall
A night of love in motion

We shall lie warm inside
Quite at ease, you watch me glide
We shall lie side by side
Here and now, talk in turn
Love the way you do so

Time is rolling on, blending with the mind
Love the way you tease me, heart
Tear another layer off, love

Listen to the stillness of the day
Drawing ever closer like your heart is beating
When I hear it beating, I will recall
A night of love in motion

We shall lie warm inside
Quite at ease, you watch me glide
We shall lie side by side
Here and now, talk in turn
And love the way you do so

We shall lie warm inside
Quite at ease, you watch me glide
We shall lie side by side
Here and now, talk in turn
And love the way you do so

I love to hear you breathe and sigh
I love to hear you breathe and sigh

I'm wishing that you're here within my arms again

We shall lie warm inside
Quite at ease, you watch me glide
We shall lie side by side
Here and now, talk in turn
