"Moon & The Sky"

All of a sudden it's gone
Too late to wish a friend farewell
Heard the sea in a shell
Said we would meet in other worlds

See how the moon, she cries
Cool how the tears fill up the sky as snow

Gotta touch the sky

Hold your head in my hand
A taste, a wish, a parting sigh
Takes the boat across the water
Heaves a gentle sigh

See how the moon, she cries
Cool how the tears fill up the sky as snow

Gotta touch the sky

All of a sudden it's gone
Too late to wish a friend farewell
Heard the sea in a shell
Said we would meet in other worlds

See how the moon, she cries
Cool how the tears fill up the sky as snow

Gotta touch the sky
Gotta touch the sky
Gotta touch the sky
