What is there to do?
Only rain falling down from the sky
Only me and you, fair and plain
Nothing lost and nothing gained

Only the love, nothing more nothing less
Comes between us, temperature's rising
My passion is burning inside

My world in light saving all as one
A love that no one can deny
My one true light, same for everyone
A love we dare you to defy, only rain

I won't settle for less but no regret
See myself in your own reflection
(See myself in your reflection)
Something in your eyes that tells me, why
I'm a fool for your warm affection
(I'm a fool for your affection)

Only the love, nothing more nothing less
Comes between us, temperature's rising
My passion is burning inside

My world in light saving all as one
A love that no one can deny
My one true light, same for everyone
A love we dare you to defy, only rain

You are my, my one true, my world in light
You are my, my one true, my world in light

My world in light saving all as one
A love that no one can deny
My one true light, same for everyone
A love we dare you to defy, only rain
