Why should it matter how I feel?
This old romantic down at hill
Then again, if I'd known the outcome
Sure you'd win

Illusion shattered, made them real
A night of magic, fate is sealed
Ran amok and you knocked
My tiny world for six

It wouldn't have made the slightest
Blindest bit of difference

All together now, let's hear you pray
Make it better now and savor the day
I'm all over, save me darling

I feel it deep down, deep inside
Cannot believe we're still alive
That is good 'cause I did not mean
You harm, my love

We took a shot at masquerade
Came crashing down on love's parade
We were young
We're so full of teen emotion then

We couldn't have made the slightest
Blindest bit of difference

All together now, let's hear you pray
Make it better now and savor the day
I'm all over, save me darling

All together now, let's hear you pray
Make it better now and savor the day
I'm all over, save me darling

We couldn't have made the slightest
Blindest bit of difference
All together

All together now, let's hear you pray
Make it better now and savor the day
I'm all over, save me darling

All together now, let's hear you pray
Make it better now and savor the day
I'm all over, save me darling

We couldn't have made the slightest
Blindest bit of difference
I'm all over, save me darling

All together now, let's hear you pray
Make it better now and savor the day
I'm all over, save me darling

All together now, let's hear you pray
Make it better now and savor the day
I'm all over, save me darling
