Ever faithful I endure to listen for the sound of the siren song

Ragged whispers of imprisoned sisters
Cutting through real life, drawing me near

The colour of the pure in soul
Like water shall fill the cloudless sky

Try to feel the splendour of it all
Embrace the honesty of nightfall
Try to feel the anguish of it all
And wrap yourself up in every facet of emotion, oh

Hearts that cry diamond tears
Spirits that walk for a thousand years
Hear them calling on that darkest morning
Pulling me under, my thoughts disappear

The colour of the pure in soul
Like water shall fill the cloudless sky

Try to feel the splendour of it all
Embrace the honesty of nightfall
Try to feel the anguish of it all
And wrap yourself up in every facet of emotion, oh

The colour of the pure in soul
Like water shall fill the cloudless sky

Try to feel the splendour of it all
Embrace the honesty of nightfall
Try to feel the anguish of it all
And wrap yourself up in every facet of emotion, oh

Try to feel the splendour of it all
Embrace the honesty of nightfall

Feel love, feel joy, feel pain
Got a feelin' they're on their way, ohh
