"No Better Place"

On the eve of battle, in the barracks they congregate
Except for Us
Runaway from, expectations
Where we hide in the fallen oaks
Deeper down deeper down
Fear the dreamer for they do not know
Fear the reaper for this is his home
Seems to me the blood is eroding

Rush down the spine of indecency
Slaves to everything except a dream
Slaves to everything except a dream
Free to dream
Keep me
From falling
Back into waking life
I just want to dream tonight
