Oh Yeah, mmm
Yeah, Baby

Standing on my own
Got my two feet on the ground
And I'm hearing what you're sayin
But I just can't make the sound
You tell me that you need me
But ya never come around
My Way ...
I told you I was sorry
Didn't think you'd turn around and say..

It's never too late to apologize, Sorry
It's never too late to apologize, Sorry

If ya had the chance, would ya fall and take a shot for me
Yea, I need you like a heart needs a beat
But its not for me
Yeah yeah

I loved you with a fire red, now it's turning blue
But you say
You dont say you're sorry often cuz thats not you
And then say

It's never too late to apologize, Sorry
It's never too late to apologize, Sorry
Yea, Yea ... Im sorry

It's never too late to apologize, Sorry
It's never too late to apologize, Sorry

Its never too late ... Im so Sorry

Standing on my own
Got my two feet on the ground... yea
