Chorus:

Iâ€™m going away my baby,
Iâ€™m gonna leave you pretty gal
For a train passed by while you lay sleeping
Iâ€™ll write you a letter on a dusty boxcar wall

I once had a love in old Kentucky
I once had a love in sunny Tennessee
But a New York gal brought me pain and sadness
Now Iâ€™m here as lonely as I can be

Chorus

City women bring you grief and sorrow

Country girls are as sweet as they can be
City women are as cold as they are shallow
But a country girlâ€™s love is as deep as the deep blue sea

Chorus

Oh when I die and go to heaven
Thatâ€™ll be tha last train ride Iâ€™ll ever see Theyâ€™ll put a silver spike upon my gravestone
And my casket beneath a weeping willow tree
