Say its over now, going for a while you've got it in your head, I aint sleeping in my bed curse me inside when I made you cry Come back into my life make it up to you tonight

(hook)
tell me why did I walk away to find him holding what should be mine cant breathe easy
I cant eat, sleep, if you aint next to me girl baby IÂ'm so sorry

the way you hugged me, said you love me or call me honey' it gives me butterflies in my tummy and when you touched me I have to said you never bore me forever known it, if you need me you know what to call me when your horny shorty a problem came and IÂ'm to blame ever since you walked away thats were things change you was tripping coz IÂ'm always chilling with my crew you said: "I dont have a clue whats going on between me and you"

its like a game snakes and ladders baby driving me crazy and I just don't to be your lady and even maybe in the past that youÂ've acted too shady now you can see that IÂ'm moving without you coz its just aint right and I need someone who was true from the start I know you feel its not fully grow man, it was to act like a kid
I feel a lake with the tears I cry over you and now you know IÂ'm gonna say good bye my love is thought

(hook)
I see you looking at me and I wondering why coz when we were together you had to wondering eye looking in all the wrong places, when you had it at home, now you're drowning in your sorrows coz I left you alone I tried to break it to you light ever so polity, you tried to collect the scripts and you didn't want to hear it and you didn't want to listen all you wanted to do is talk well the talk is no good to me, because you never walked the walk wait how can you say this after had been through you're my flower, my boo, to you I stay true ok I'm not perfect in an all perfect world At lease I found someone I can call my girl I know I was a fool and I don't want to do and I know buying your jewels won't make it cool can we kick back, relax up in the flat we have a chat and start out like that

(hook)

I wish that I can come and mend your broken heart and take you back to good time right to the start but right now it feels like we are worlds apart I need your hands help guide me through the dark if you think about it's practically the same I forgot my head a little and cause your pain to be honest I don't care what your friends gotta to say coz they never really like me in the first place maybe coz the man he treat you bad or maybe what we have they never had I think they're jealous of that very fact and baby please forgive me, I want you back I miss those little things like way you talk and that little special things like the way you walk I don't give a damn if this sounds cheesy its simple without ya I can't breathe easy.

(hook x3)
