"Unfinished Rhapsodie"

Oh I told her once, I told her twice
She don't know what I mean
Oh, I hate your lipstick lies
Girl with a mandolin
Oh it's too late to stop it now
Girl without a face
'Cause she played this melody
One hand, one heart, one race
The mystery of this melody is
You'll never forget the tune

I hear a wonderful unfinished rhapsodie
With tears oh in my eyes
I hear a wonderful unfinished rhapsodie
Oh blessing in disguise
Sail on a rainbow, sail to my dreams

Oh I told her once, I told her twice
Called her bittersweet
But she's running now to paradise
Till waters run so deep
The sky was crying like a child
Tears, oh, of a clown
Oh Roxanna's going wild
Oh she brings me down
The mystery of the melody is
You'll never forget the tune
