He had a dream, a master plan
To fight the day, as good as he can
But the voice of silence, it's killing his heart,
Killing his heart
He worked so hard, when he was born
Those were the days of the unicorn
But the voice of silence, oh it's killing his heart,
Killing his heart

Don't kiss the vampire
He walks in my sleep
It's like a fire
Still waters run deep

Don't kiss the vampire
The ocean of fears
Oh his desire
Are sorrows and tears

Behind close doors, he's living so lonely
Behind close doors, he's the one and only
Oh, your blood is running to his heart

He had a dream, a lonely life
His friends are dead, but he survived
But the voice of silence, it's killing his heart,
Killing his heart
Who wants to live, forever girl
In the darkness of the world
But the voice of silence, it's killing his heart,
Killing his heart
