The reason you know me but I don't know you

You really wanna know what drama is let me show you

But keep in mind this is just one point of view

Drama is livin' in a 3rd world country

Fucked up and hungry without no money

Drama is trying to adjust to circumstance

Missing more than one leg or more than one hand

Drama is being chased off ya' land

By a funny looking man in a suit that works for the bank

Drama is what's happening to the ecosystem

And the animals it feeds, from the damage to trees

To rainforests that get destroyed annually

Damn is it just me who cares about the air that we breathe?

Drama is the nuclear threat that we live with

One bomb and everybody's dead that's some sick shit

Drama is HIV statistics

The infected person that you might have sex with, life goes on

But drama is living with the afterthought that maybe you could have prevented it

Drama is imminent, it comes in other forms

The sick pedophiles who support child porn

Never mind the offenders

Think about what the victims go through and what the fuck they gotta' live wit

Drama is the prison population

Some belong there but also some belong on probation

Drama is not being able to change one thing

Cause the system you live in says you ain't shit

Drama is corporate scandal

Drama is a handful of CEO's playin' you for a damn fool

Drama is being a millionaire

But gotta' recoup half the budget from your 10 percent share

Drama is having one too many women

Even though you always need a spare one to swim in

Drama is dealing with your jealous impulses

Learning how to hold it all in with no emotion

Drama is blind devotion
Drama is having your deepest secrets exposed in the open
Drama is having your heart broken
And the person who broke it doesn't even motherfucking notice
Drama is trying to carry a burden all by yourself on your shoulders and it don't exist
Drama is being falsely accused, Drama is the latest news
Drama is what gives people clues
Drama is a tool you can use to distract ya' enemy so they never improve
Drama is the fear of devils and the fear of God
Drama is a long and hard Tech support desk job
Drama is the life of an up-and-coming actor or rapper
Or athlete or building contractor
Drama is a rookie cop calling for backup
The 3 strike perpetrator that's getting tatted up
Drama is the spin zone of a politician
Drama is K-Solo when he said the rhyme did it
Drama is the struggle of change
Drama is inevitable there is no other way
Drama is what drains life force out of you
Drama is negative but drama can empower you
Drama is love, Drama is pain
Drama exists in everything everyday
Drama is the Yen, Drama is the Yang
Drama is the innate nature of man
Drama contracts, Drama expands
Drama is what I am

[Luminati]

Pull up a chair to the aristocracy of commonwealth prophecy
The legacy of generation three isosceles
Logical geometry, illogical melodies
Integrated with memories that mix melodically
Beyond the insight of what a modern-day monkey sees
Get chopped in three for pathetic hypocrisy
False bureaucracy breeds poetic monopolies
Chateau de Trevano is my property
An addict for drama and dramatic oddities
Addicted to bottles of sticky green botany
In a reflection of the split seas you see me in 3D
Tripping off three hits of E
Half-a-tablet for you 2-and-a-half for me
A rappers speech is slurred for eternal depravity
Naturally ignore gravity project astrally
Ascend gradually till the stratosphere passes me
Earth's actually esoterically absent to me

Take a crack at me with blurred clarity - battle me
Spiders crawl outta the skin the six headed beast
Evil beings that wrestle with demons in the deep
Useless to eat 200 pounds of rotten meat
Shrink heads drink black milk collect black teeth
Luminati tribal chief wear it as trophy piece
My women are ornamented with a blood soaked wreath
Like Christmas minus Christ plus the heat
The Ascended Master, leader of all immortal freaks
Voodoo curse on your last and future release
Unleash the worst plague put the world under siege
Till your name is unheard and your face is unseen
Till your just a nightmare of an accursed dream Tell the supreme to curse your whole team and your unborn seed
Poison your queen like the Furher's last week
In the blood filled streets your a leech
Less than a man a poverty stricken thief with grief
At night you speak to Satan before you go to sleep
Worshipping the flesh like poor pagan priests
Your future's oblique
I command your heart to seize its beat
Thou shall inherit disease, drama and defeat...

Drama... Drama... Drama... Drama
