I can't sleep nights
Wishing you were here beside me
Can't help feeling
That's the way it ought to be

You know we could run away
And I couldn't bear to hear
The things they'd say, oh no

Baby, let's pretend
That tonight could live forever
If we close our eyes
And believe, it might come true

Baby, let's pretend
We could always be together
But for now just let me
Spend the night with you

Somehow, someday
Things are gonna be so different
Don't cry, some way
I promise it will be all right

So now that we're all alone
I couldn't bear
To ever take you home, oh no

Baby, let's pretend
That tonight could live forever
If we close our eyes
And believe, it might come true

Baby, let's pretend
We could always live together
But for now just let me
Spend the night with you

So take me now
My love can't wait
We're almost there now darlin'
Darlin' hold me, hold me, hold me

Baby, let's pretend
That tonight could live forever
If we close our eyes
And believe, it might come true

Baby, let's pretend
We could always live together
But for now just let me
Spend the night with you

Baby, let's pretend
That tonight could live forever
If we close our eyes
And believe, it might come true

Baby, let's pretend
We could always be together
But for now just let me
Spend the night with you
