And it seems to me this is going nowhere, baby.
Spending all my time just looking for you, lately.
It's been a short, sharp, shock! shock! living with you,
baby.
It's been one hard knock! knock! living without you,
lately.
Everything just seems so unkind to us, baby.
And i don't know why but I'm still here with you, baby.
It's been a short, sharp, shock! shock! living with you,
baby.
It's been a one hard knock! knock! living without you,
lately.

Here we go, alcohol.
It's been a shock! shock! living without you.
Take another Sunday night and maybe it'll break me.
Now I'm sick to find that you're not here with me, baby.
It's been a short, sharp shock! shock! living with you,
baby.
It's been one hard knock! knock! living without you,
lately.
Here we go, alcohol.
It's been a shock! shock! living without you.
