"Faster Than My Angels Can Fly"

Momma used to teach,
And Preacher used to preach, there's angels watching over me, their here to shield you, so you dont yield to the devil, when your soul gets weak, but they're hard to hear,
when you're jammin gears, and they're always hanging back, yeah they try to chase but if they wanna save me, they better step on the gas,

[chorus]

cause I'm livin faster than my angels can fly, yeah I've been wearin the wings off mine, im bound to die out-livin life
yeah faster than my angels can fly theres days i regret this hitch in my step, and scars on my boots and hands, all those times i rushed to get growed up, and to hurry to become a man, and the promises i made and the hearts i break all in the name of fun, yeah id apologize but i aint go no time for no tie me up slow me down love,

[chorus]

cause I'm livin faster than my angels can fly,
yeah I've been wearin the wings off mine, yeah im bound to die out-livin life

yeah i slowed down, i aint what i was, still they aint got a prayer, of ever catching up, cause i was born to run, born to run, born to run yeah

faster than my angels can fly,
yeah I've been wearin the wings off mine,
