One, two
One, two, three

I woke up early this mornin?
An? I'm already runnin? late
There's a list of things on as my arm
I wanna get done today

Is it Tuesday? Is it Wednesday?
They're runnin? into each other
Somebody tell me, when is my day
Man, this life is sure bein? a mother

So tomorrow I'm takin? me fishin?
Hang a sign on the door of my life
Tell the world that I've gone missin?
An? I won't be back for a while

I'm so tired of only wishin?
I could leave my troubles behind
I wanna be front porch rockin?
With a big sun droppin? in a blue sky

Kick back an? get high
On the livin? part of life

Yeah, come on

They say to keep your spot on the ladder
An? keep that money rollin? in
They say, keepin? up with the feelies, boy
You can't back off one inch

But I been puttin? in my time
An? I've built up a pretty good deal
I'm gonna spend some, maybe waste some
Before my time comes an? I wind up dead
Yeah, tomorrow I'm takin? me fishin?
Hang a sign on the door of my life
Tell the world that I've gone missin?
An? I won't be back for a while

I'm so tired of only wishin?
I could leave my troubles behind
I wanna be front porch rockin?
With a big sun droppin? in a blue sky

Kick back an? get high
On the livin? part of life

Yeah

When I get home tonight
I'll open the window an? let whatever roll in
An? if there's no breeze that's cool with me
I'll just raise myself an? wait on the wind, yeah

Yeah, tomorrow I'm takin? me fishin?
Hang a sign on the door of my life
Tell the world that I've gone missin?
An? I won't be back for a while

I'm so tired of only wishin?
I could leave my troubles behind
I wanna be front porch rockin?
With a big sun droppin? in a blue sky

Kick back an? get high
Kick back an' get high
On the livin?, the livin' part of life

Yeah, bop, bop
Bop, bop, bop, bop

Yeah, that one was right
That's cool
